- b) Take a lead in, and use strategies in liaison with the teacher, to support pupils to achieve learning goals.
- c) Prepare the classroom for lessons and clear afterwards. Assist with the display of pupil's work.
- d) Ensure the timely and accurate design, preparation and use of specialist equipment/resources and materials.
- e) Monitor and evaluate pupils' responses to learning activities through observation and planned recording of achievement against pre-determined learning objectives.
- f) Provide the teacher with objective and accurate feedback and reports as required, on pupil achievement, progress and other matters, ensuring the availability of appropriate evidence.
- g) Manage the compilation of records, information, and data and produce reports for analysis.

- h) Administer and assess routine tests, invigilate exams, undertake routine marking of pupils' work, and accurately record achievement/progress.
- i) Promote positive values, attitudes and good pupil behaviour, dealing promptly with conflict and incidents in line with established policy and encourage pupils to take responsibility for their own behaviour.
- j) Under the direction of the teacher establish constructive relationships with parents/carers, exchanging information, facilitating their support for their child's attendance, access and learning, and supporting home to school and community links.
- k) Provide general clerical/administrative support eg. Dealing with correspondence, analysing data on attendance, exclusions etc. administering coursework, producing worksheets for agreed activities, photocopying, typing, filing etc.
- l) Take a lead role in the development, implementation and monitoring of systems relating to attendance, registration, truancy, pastoral systems etc.
- m) Take a significant role in the development and implementation of appropriate behaviour management strategies under direction of Senior staff.

Support for the Curriculum:

- a) Support pupils in understanding instructions.
- b) Plan and implement structured and agreed learning activities/teaching programmes, adjusting activities according to pupil responses.
- c) Implement local and national learning strategies eg., literacy, numeracy, KS3, early years etc. as directed by the teachers.
- d) Support pupils in using ICT, and develop pupils' competence and independence in its use.
- e) Determine the need for, prepare and use specialist equipment/resources as directed by the teacher, and assist pupils in their use.
- f) Be responsible for the management of stock levels, which may include the management of a budget and the regular audit of resources.
- g) Actively seek information regarding, and utilize, the range of activities, courses, organisations, and individuals to provide support for pupils to broaden and enrich their learning.

Support for the Academy:

- a) Comply with and assist with the development of policies and procedures relating to child protection, health, safety and security, confidentiality and data protection, reporting all concerns to an appropriate person.
- b) Be aware of and support difference and ensure that pupils have equal access to opportunities to learn and develop.
- c) Contribute to the overall ethos/work/aims of the Academy.
- d) Establish constructive relationships and communicate with other agencies/professionals, in liaison with the teacher, to support the achievement and progress of the pupils.
- e) Support the development of multi-agency approaches to supporting pupils.
- f) Attend and participate in relevant meetings as required.
- g) Participate in training and other learning activities and performance development as required.
- h) Recognise own strengths and areas of expertise, and use these to advise and support others.
- i) Provide appropriate guidance and supervision and assist in the training and development of staff as appropriate.
- j) Be responsible for the provision of out of Academy hours learning activities, within guidelines established by the Academy.
- k) Assist with the supervision of pupils out of lesson times, including lunchtimes.
- l) To take a specific lead role while accompanying teaching staff and pupils, on visits, trips and out of school activities, and take responsibility for a group under the supervision of a teacher, or independently where agreed with senior managers.
